

A dark, atmospheric illustration of a dragon with glowing yellow eyes and a crescent moon in a night sky over a castle by a river. The dragon is coiled in the foreground, its head turned towards the castle. The castle is a tall, dark structure with several towers and a central spire, situated on a rocky outcrop. The river flows in the foreground, reflecting the light from the castle and the moon. The background features dark, silhouetted mountains under a deep blue night sky with a few stars.

Morfeu era forte, feroz, majestoso,
E além disso tudo, também muito idoso.
Também era sábio, gigante e valente,
Com olhos de fogo e olhar reluzente.

À beira do rio do esquecimento,
Que canta baixinho, em puro alento.
Construiu sua torre bem junto à corrente,
Pra ouvir sua música calma e fluente.
