

To my daughter,
who, behind every “I don’t want to go to school,” revealed a mind open to discovery and a heart pulled back by separation.

